

Koru Chiropractic Internet Privacy Policy

(Effective February 24, 2018)

The information contained in this Site is for general guidance on This Privacy Policy applies to the Koru Chiropractic website. The Koru Chiropractic website contains links to other sites. Once you enter another website (whether through an advertisement, service, or content link), be aware that Koru Chiropractic is not responsible for the privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage you to look for and review the privacy statements of each and every web website that you visit.

NON-PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect Non-Personal Information about your use of our website, special promotions and newsletters.

Koru Chiropractic assigns every computer a different Cookie. The information collected by Cookies:

- (i) helps us to statistically monitor how many people are using our website
- (ii) how many people open our emails
- (iii) for what purposes these actions are being taken

Cookies are also used to facilitate a user's log-in, as navigation aids and as session timers, but not to retain Personal Health Information about you.

Your browser software can be set to reject all Cookies. If you reject our Cookies, certain functions and conveniences of our website may not work properly but you do not have to accept our Cookies in order to use our site. We do not link Non-Personal Information from Cookies to Personally Identifiable Information without your permission and do not use Cookies to collect or store Personal Health Information about you.

PERSONALLY IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION WE COLLECT

This Privacy Policy does not protect you when you send content, questions or ideas to Koru Chiropractic by email. If you want to keep them private or proprietary, do not send them in an email to Koru

Chiropractic. We try to answer every email within 48 business hours, but are not always able to do so.

We are committed to protecting the privacy of children. Neither Koru Chiropractic nor any of its services are designed or intended to attract children under the age of 13.

From time to time the Koru Chiropractic market research department, or its operations contractors acting on its behalf, conducts online research surveys in order to gather feedback about our site, our sponsors and opinions on important healthcare issues, through email invitations, surveys and online focus groups.

Personally Identifiable Information collected through market research will only be used by Koru Chiropractic and its operations contractors and will not be given or sold to a third party.

DISCLOSURE OF YOUR INFORMATION

Except as set forth in this Privacy Policy or as specifically agreed to by you, Koru Chiropractic will not disclose any Personally Identifiable or Personal Health Information it gathers from you on our website. We will only release Personally Identifiable or Personal Health Information to third parties:

- (i) to comply with valid legal requirements such as a law, regulation, search warrant, subpoena or court order.
- (ii) in special cases, such as a physical threat to you or others. In the event that we are legally compelled to disclose your Personally Identifiable or Personal Health Information to a third party, we will attempt to notify you unless doing so would violate the law or court order. In addition, we may disclose Personal Information as described below.

Your continued use of the Koru Chiropractic site will indicate acceptance of the changes. Please exit the site immediately if you do not agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy or any revised policy.
